

Our Work for Energy Industry Clients

We serve as principal outside corporate and securities counsel to many publicly traded companies based in the Gulf South Region and to many privately held entities, providing the representation of the following types, among others:

- Corporate and securities transactions
- Corporate finance and financial reporting
- Investor relations
- Intellectual property matters
- Compliance coordination and advice
- Internal investigations
- Industry agreements and contracts
- Tax advices and representation
- Bankruptcy and restructuring
- Real estate matters, including title opinions
- Operational work
- Litigation of all types, including class actions
- Maritime matters
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Environmental and toxic torts matters, and environmental regulatory advice
- Project development and power plant operations
- Project finance
- Mining
- Immigration
- Health care
- Labor and employment