

Health Care Industry

Jones Walker provides health care industry clients with comprehensive legal guidance and representation. We strive to help our health care industry clients navigate the complex web of federal and state regulations that affect every aspect of provider operations, and we represent each client with a customized approach to their individual business operations and business plans.

Our health care industry clients benefit from the multidisciplinary experience of attorneys who work jointly to provide high-quality legal services. Jones Walker represents a broad, diverse regional and national client base in the health care industry, including:

- Public, government and private hospitals
- Rehabilitation hospitals
- Specialty hospitals
- Nursing homes
- Long-term care facilities
- Physicians, physician groups, and clinics
- Infusion companies
- Physical therapy groups and facilities
- Comprehensive rehabilitation facilities
- Speech therapy and occupational therapy groups and facilities
- Durable medical equipment companies
- Home health agencies
- Independent diagnostic testing facilities
- Medical device manufacturers
- Pharmaceutical companies
- Laboratories and testing facilities
- Managed care organizations (HMOs, PPOs, and MCOs)
- Pharmacies