

Our Work for Construction Industry Companies

We serve as principal outside corporate and securities counsel to many publicly traded companies based in the Gulf South as well as to many privately held entities, providing representation in the following areas, among others:

- Class action defense
- Forming new business entities
- Breach of contract claims
- Contractual disputes
- Property acquisition
- Title examination
- Manufacturer's products liability and third-party products liability claims
- General business planning advices
- Asbestos litigation
- Multi-plaintiff personal injury claims
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Formation of consulting entities and negotiations of subsequent consulting contracts
- Acting as public finance counsel for the creation of community and economic development districts, for financing of new real estate projects
- Arbitration
- Transfer of corporate shares
- Tax advices
- Discrimination lawsuit defense
- Commercial contract disputes
- Riparian Rights issues
- Maritime casualty and cargo loss
- Business interruption claims
- Lien advices
- Subcontract review and advices
- Representation in collections and related matters

- General labor and employment advice
 - Trademark application and prosecution
 - LLC formation
 - Code and ordinance advices
 - Negotiation of credit facilities and representation in creditor disputes
 - Defense of personal injury lawsuits
 - Wrongful termination matters
 - Project financing and raising equity
 - Workers' compensation claims
 - Purchasing and conversion of vessels
 - Investment advices
 - Collisions
 - OSHA complaint, citation, investigation, and penalty defense and representation
 - Executive compensation matters
 - Union election process advices
 - Withdrawal liability matters
- 