

Representative Clients

- A public university with more than 11,000 students that operates six colleges covering business, science, education, engineering, liberal arts, and graduate studies, as well as several institutes and research centers
- A private research-based university that operates 11 schools and colleges, satellite campuses, and a teaching hospital
- A small, private college with enrollment of 1,450 students
- A university that is part of a statewide college system, with an enrollment of approximately 8,200 students
- A large public university comprised of 10 campuses and a public hospital system with several locations throughout the state, and a student enrollment exceeding 57,000