

Our Work for Telecommunications Industry Clients

- Securities advices
- Assisting with annual meetings, including the preparation of proxy statements
- Assisting with corporate governance initiatives
- Antitrust matters
- Mergers and acquisitions, including reviewing possible acquisitions
- Selling subsidiaries
- Acquiring assets
- Arranging, using, and administering credit facilities
- Selling senior notes
- Remarketing Series J notes
- State corporate license tax appeals
- Preparing short- and long-term incentive compensation plans
- Purchasing and settling equity units
- State corporate franchise tax, corporate excise tax, and corporation income tax audits
- Stock buybacks
- Implementing successor rights plans
- Matters related to nonqualified and qualified defined benefit and deferred contribution plans, and obtaining determination letters with respect to qualified plans
- Assisting clients with bids on companies in controlled auctions
- Evaluating D&O insurance issues
- Sales and use tax litigation
- Public debt offerings
- Redemption of convertible debentures
- Insurance suits against property insurers
- Establishing foundations for educational programs
- Representing clients in federal bankruptcy suits
- Real estate closings

- Pursuing preference and avoidance claims against former employees
 - Arbitration, including arbitration of contractual disputes
 - Matters relating to utility systems
 - Title examinations
 - Appealing LPSC orders regulating DSL services
 - Litigation involving local exchange carriers
 - Advices relating to statewide franchising or cable TV and IP TV
 - Asbestos litigation
 - Selling property
 - Nationwide class action defense
 - Joint pole use disputes
 - Defense litigation pertaining to accidents involving telephone poles
 - Discovery assistance in anti-spam litigation
- 