

Transactional Tax (Federal & International)

Our tax attorneys, working together with attorneys in other practice areas, offer advice on a full range of transactions involving corporations, Subchapter S corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies. Our attorneys also represent taxpayers in disputes with the Internal Revenue Service.

Members of our Transactional Tax group have represented clients in the following types of transactions, listed below.

Corporations

- Electing Subchapter S status
- Financing transactions including sales of stock and issuance of debt
- Formation and contributions of property
- Liquidations
- Operating distributions and redemptions
- Requests for private letter rulings
- Stock and asset sales
- Tax-free reorganizations, including spin-offs and split-offs

Partnerships & Limited Liability Companies

- Acquisitions and dispositions of property
- Formation and contributions of property
- Installment sales of property
- Structuring partnership and operating agreements
- Tax-free like-kind exchanges of property

501(c)(3) & Other Tax-Exempt Organizations

- Applying for tax-exempt status
- Compliance issues
- Formation

International Transactions

Tax Credit Transactions

- Louisiana tax credits
- New markets tax credit transactions