Wish Ziegler is an associate in the firm's Business & Finance Practice Group and practices from the firm's New Orleans office. Her practice focuses primarily on corporate, project and international financial transactions, as well as general corporate and commercial transactions.

Ms. Ziegler has represented global banking corporations, various non-banking financial institutions, and corporations in connection with private placements, registered securities offerings, exchange offers, tender offers, commercial paper, foreign debt offerings, foreign debt restructurings, letter of credit backed facilities, asset-backed transactions, and foreign government debt offerings and restructurings. Many of these foreign debt offerings have coupled private placements in the United States and European markets, pursuant to Rule 144A and Regulation S, with public offerings in the issuer's country of incorporation.

In addition, Ms. Ziegler has experience drafting and negotiating sophisticated commercial contracts, as well as advising new business ventures and assisting with the formation of new business ventures.
