Paul F. Cambon is the Director of Government Relations for Jones Walker, having worked previously for Congressman Bob Livingston for more than 20 years in Congress. In his position as Legislative Director, Mr. Cambon was the congressman's primary advisor on all federal appropriations policy matters. Through this experience, Mr. Cambon has developed a vast network of contacts in the federal, congressional, and private sectors, and has developed experience in the development and implementation of the 13 annual appropriations measures. Mr. Cambon received his bachelor of arts degree from Louisiana State University in 1976.
