Megan Donohue is an associate in the firm's Business & Commercial Litigation Practice Group and practices from the firm's Lafayette office. Ms. Donohue's practice includes a wide range of business and commercial litigation cases as well as environmental/legacy litigation. She has represented clients in the insurance, oil, and telecommunications industries. Ms. Donohue has been involved in many aspects of litigation, including traditional discovery and complex e-discovery, drafting substantive pleadings, taking and defending depositions, oral argument, and trial. Her experience also extends to various types of complex litigation, including multi-district litigation.

Ms. Donohue joined Jones Walker in September 2009, following graduation from the Paul M. Hebert Law Center, Louisiana State University, where she received her juris doctor degree and Diploma in Civil Law. A Faculty Merit Scholar at LSU, Ms. Donohue was involved with LSU's Trial Advocacy Board, the National Environmental Law Moot Court Competition, the LSU National Trial Advocacy Team, and won the LSU Ira S. Flory Trials as well as the defense portion of the LSU Opening Statement Competition. She also served as the 1L Vice President of the Student Bar Association. Ms. Donohue received her Bachelor of Science in Accounting, cum laude, from Louisiana State University in 2006.
