Yvonne Grassie is the chair of the firm's Health Care Industry Group. Ms. Grassie practices corporate and transactional health care law, functions as general counsel for companies and health care providers, and provides compliance and regulatory counsel to health care providers. Ms. Grassie's health care clients include physician groups, durable medical equipment companies, home health agencies, independent diagnostic testing facilities, pharmacies, home infusion providers, medical billing companies, staffing companies, and individual health care providers, among others. In representing her clients, Ms. Grassie takes into consideration both the client's obligation to comply with applicable rules and regulations and the client's business needs. Ms. Grassie engages in short and long term business and structural planning with her clients, and functions as part of the client's outside work force. Ms. Grassie is versed in, among other things, HIPAA, federal and state physician self referral prohibitions, including Stark, anti-kickback legislation, and provider conditions of participation.

Ms. Grassie is certified by The Florida Bar as a legal specialist in Health Law.

Ms. Grassie's Corporate & Securities practice includes public and private offering work, corporate and partnership documentation, asset and stock acquisitions, and employment and consulting agreements for a wide range of public and private corporations and entrepreneurs.
