

Jones Walker Today

Since our inception in 1937, Jones Walker has grown over the past several decades in size and scope to become one of the largest law firms in the Gulf South. We serve local, regional, national, and international business interests in a wide range of markets and industries. Today, we have approximately 375 attorneys in Alabama, Arizona, the District of Columbia, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas.

Experience With Client and Industry Diversity

Jones Walker is committed to providing proactive legal services to major multinational, public, and private corporations; Fortune 500® companies; money center banks and worldwide insurers; and family and emerging businesses located in the United States and abroad.

We have close ties to many types of businesses and industries, and our attorneys are heralded for their experience in several practice areas. We focus on building lasting relationships with clients and gaining a thorough understanding of our clients' businesses and industries. Regardless of the size of a client, we work with each client's specific needs in mind, focusing on achieving the best results in the most efficient manner.

Dedicated Client Service

As industries and businesses experience constant change, so does the legal profession; our attorneys strive continuously to practice law with a high level of creativity and innovation to deliver the best possible legal representation given any crisis, market condition, or specific situation.

We work with the mentality of an efficient business, yet we will not sacrifice personalized client service in order to achieve results. We have been recognized for our dedication to client service in several BTI client service surveys and rankings, in which clients recognized our consistent excellence in areas such as client focus, anticipating client needs, and understanding each client's business.

Broad Scope

Jones Walker attorneys are licensed to practice in multiple states and the District of Columbia, and have international experience in several countries. A number of our attorneys are regularly published in an array of legal, commercial, and industry journals. Several of our legal professionals serve as featured speakers for professional, trade, and business seminars, and as instructors for law school courses. Each of our attorneys maintains a steadfast commitment to community leadership and charitable work, and all are actively involved in our communities. Firmwide, we support numerous local and national civic and charitable organizations by dedicating time, talent, and financial resources to improve our communities and help those in need.
