Press Release

Legislative Assistant to Senator John Breaux Joins Jones Walker

Washington, D.C. and New Orleans – December 1, 2004. Jones Walker is pleased to announce that John P. Flynn is joining the firm as a Government Relations Specialist in its Washington, D.C. office. Flynn joins Jones Walker's government relations group after serving as Legislative Assistant/Congressional Fellow since 1998 to Senator John Breaux. At Jones Walker, Flynn will focus on maritime transportation, fisheries, and other policy issues.

"I have worked for over six years on the Hill with Senator Breaux as his primary advisor on maritime, marine resources and transportation issues," said Flynn. "With Senator Breaux's retirement this year, Jones Walker provides me with a great opportunity to continue my work on maritime and transportation projects that are important to the state of Louisiana and other critical regions of the United States."

Prior to joining Senator Breaux's staff, Flynn served in the United States Coast Guard from 1978 to 2002. Flynn received his B.S. from the State University of New York in 1989.

"John will be a natural fit for our maritime practice in Washington," said Chris Johnsen, Managing Partner of Jones Walker's Washington office. "He will be of tremendous help to us with our maritime clients in Louisiana and across the country."

Jones Walker, founded in 1937, is a law firm with 215 attorneys located in Baton Rouge, Houston, Lafayette, Miami, New Orleans and Washington, D.C. The firm handles regional, national and international legal matters for clients doing business in the United States and abroad.
